

Are you a young woman
with breast cancer?

Are you motivated by helping others?

Become a Young Advocate!

Our Young Advocate Program provides tools and training to help young women who have been diagnosed with breast cancer:

- use their personal breast cancer experience to make a difference in their communities
- further their understanding of the disease and advocate for others

Who Should Apply?

Young women who have been diagnosed with breast cancer before age 45 who live in the United States.

We are seeking a diverse pool of applicants, including applicants from all ethnic and racial backgrounds, sexual orientations and gender identities, and young women with lower incomes.

Young Advocate Virtual Training

This year's training will be a virtual event and is scheduled to take place:

- Wednesday, Aug. 18 | Evening Session
- Aug. 19–Sept. 6 | Self-paced Learning
- Friday, Sept. 10 | Evening Session
- Saturday, Sept. 11 & Sunday, Sept. 12 | Daytime Sessions

“The most important thing [the training] taught me was that my place in this world is to be involved with education of and support for any young woman who has heard that crashing sentence: You have breast cancer.”
