

Are you a young woman
with breast cancer?

Are you motivated by helping others?

Become a Young Advocate!

Our Young Advocate Program provides tools and training to help young women who have been diagnosed with breast cancer:

- use their personal breast cancer experience to make a difference in their communities
- further their understanding of the disease and advocate for others

Who Should Apply?

Young women who have been diagnosed with breast cancer before age 45 who live in the United States.

We are seeking a diverse pool of applicants, including applicants from all ethnic and racial backgrounds, sexual orientations and gender identities, and young women with lower incomes.

Young Advocate Virtual Training

This year's training will be a virtual event and is scheduled to take place over the course of three days:

- Wednesday, August 26 | Evening Session
- Saturday, September 12 | Daytime Session
- Sunday, September 13 | Daytime Session

“This experience has allowed me to turn the most trying situation of my life, into something empowering for myself and others. I am forever grateful for the practical knowledge, amazing connections, skills and support I have gained this year.”
