

Are you a young woman with breast cancer?

Are you motivated by helping others?

Become a Young Advocate!

Our Young Advocate Program provides tools and training to help young women who have been diagnosed with breast cancer:

- | use their personal breast cancer experience to make a difference in their communities
- | further their understanding of the disease
- | advocate for others

Who Should Apply?

Young women who have been diagnosed with breast cancer before age 45 who live in the United States.

We are seeking a diverse pool of applicants, including applicants from all ethnic and racial backgrounds, sexual orientations and gender identities, and young women with lower incomes.
