

Are you living with
metastatic breast cancer?

Do you want to make a difference in your community?

Become a Hear My Voice Advocate!

The Hear My Voice Advocate Program provides tools and training to help people affected by metastatic breast cancer:

- use their personal story to raise awareness about the disease
- further their understanding of stage IV breast cancer
- advocate for others in their physical and digital communities

Who should apply?

People who have been diagnosed with metastatic breast cancer

We are seeking a diverse pool of applicants, including applicants from all ethnic and racial backgrounds, sexual orientations and gender identities, and people with lower incomes.

Hear My Voice training will take place virtually on:

- Session 1: Saturday, March 23, 2024 – 12:00pm-4:00pm ET
- Session 2: Friday, April 5, 2024 – 12:00pm-4:00pm ET
- Session 3: Saturday, April 6, 2024 – 11:00am-5:00pm ET
- Session 4: Sunday, April 7, 2024 – 11:00am-3:30pm ET

"This program has meant everything to me. I found my VOICE in the MBC community."
